BLACK HILLS ESTATE WINERY

Okanagan's original "off the grid" lifestyle winery, poised in the valley overlooking the Black Sage Bench. Prized wines sourced from the best terroir in Canada, including the famous Nota Bene

HISTORY

Black Hills Estate Winery was the Okanagan's first cult winery. First to host gala-type events, first to move to all seated paid tastings, Black Hills demands a premium that other wineries could only dream of.

The wine that made Black Hills famous, Nota Bene, brings people from all over lining up outside the winery to get their hands on a bottle of each new vintage.

BLACK HILLS ESTATE WINERY

“Here’s a prediction: Black Hills Estate Winery, just opened a humble Quonset hut south of Oliver in British Columbia, will be the Okanagan’s answer to Screaming Eagle.... Take Notice.”

John Schreiner

WINERY DETAILS & TERROIR

Black Hills vineyards are located in Canada's only desert, between Osoyoos and Oliver, and have been recognized as having some of the best terroir in Canada

Our vineyards' microclimate provides some of the hottest, driest, and sunniest sites in the country. Fun Fact: In the key growing months (June through August), we have more sunlight than Napa Valley!

The combination of careful irrigation, thoughtfully focused viticulture practices, and west-facing slope aspect create ideal growing conditions for the Bordeaux & Rhone varietals we grow

Our winemaker is dedicated to creating terroir-focused wines, and lives in the middle of the vineyard to be as connected to the terroir as possible

TINHORN CREEK

NATURALLY SOUTH OKANAGAN

Tinhorn Creek is an Okanagan pioneer for its carbon neutral winery, and a leader in sustainability. Our wines express the uniqueness of the southern Okanagan Golden Mile Bench, including our prized wine, The Creek.

HISTORY

Tinhorn Creek Vineyards was founded by Kenn and Sandra Oldfield and Bob and Barb Shaunessy in 1993 with a focus on growing the best grapes, making great wine, and having fun whenever we can. The founding families' vision continues to live on in every aspect of Tinhorn Creek today. We hold the same values close to our hearts; to be responsible stewards for the land, our people, our community and the future. The strength of our team is what got us here, and it's that same team who lead this next leg of the journey. Through our ongoing commitment to that original vision we pay homage to our roots and the ideals on which Tinhorn Creek was built.

A warm, golden-hour photograph of a group of people gathered around a wooden table in a vineyard. Several hands are raised, holding wine glasses filled with red wine, in a toast. In the foreground, a glass pitcher of red wine, a bowl of fruit, and a basket of bread are on the table. A smiling woman is visible on the right. The background shows rolling hills and vineyards under a soft, hazy sky.
